

SACRIFICING for a new nation

IN 1776, DELAWARE DECLARED Independence from both England and Pennsylvania. Originally known as the Three Lower Counties of Pennsylvania, the First State was instrumental in the fight to form a new republic. The Marquis de Lafayette, Nathanael Greene and George Washington all made trips to the state. Caesar Rodney's ride and the Battle of Cooch's Bridge are legendary, but the state has many unsung heroes. Citizens from every village, town, crossroads and marsh risked their lives in service to the Patriot cause. Author Kim Burdick offers the carefully documented story of ordinary people coping with extraordinary circumstances.
